

Contents

APRIL 2008

34

4 Chairman's message

Poles apart. By George Done

5 AOPA Working For You

Pan-European fight for the IMC; EASA takes charge; ATSOCAS delayed; fuel tax mess; AOPA airfield reps; strife at Bristol; Lee on Solent update; Members Working Group; Big Brother is watching you; Strategic Forum – is it working? NPPL revalidation requirements

16 Airfields under threat

A review of AOPA's airfield preservation workload, by David Ogilvy

18 50 years of dreaming

Half a century after he fell in love with it, Chris Royle finally gets to fly a Hunter

23 Briefings

Oxford does the business; Robinson sales record; Duxford Safety Day; various scholarships

26 Avoiding the Arrows

The RAF's iconic formation team takes action to ensure that everyone knows where they are. Pat Malone reports

50

36

31 Letters to the editor

CAA reminders; blame for an airprox; language difficulties; European capers; lovely Aztecs; Shoreham's go-around fee; TABAC checks

34 Forgotten heroines

Nigel Griffiths MP on the successful campaign to win recognition for the women – and men – of the ATA

36 Avro Tutor

A pre-war trainer that was almost too docile, says David Ogilvy

41 Where to fly

Choose your club from AOPA's corporate members listing

50 Mixing up the mixture

The Boeing 777 incident at Heathrow recalls a valuable lesson for William Fairney

16

26

23

18