

Peter R March

20

4 Chairman's Column

Something beginning with 'O'.
By George Done

5 AOPA Working for You

Light at the end of the EASA tunnel?
IAOPA works on smoothing the US-EU bilateral for GA

15 Briefings:

Rick Peacock Edwards to chair GASCo; Sue Virr memorial fly-in; Battersea touts for business; Sandown puts out the welcome mat

18 'Going foreign' made easy

Everything you need to know about venturing 'sur le Continent' explained by James Chan and Tony Purton

20 Antonov An-2

Drag, noise and smoke – Tufan Sevincel describes his cheap, thirsty, magnificent monster

25 Letters to the editor

Elstree of old; Ogilvy and the GAAC; Norwich airspace; dysfunctional pilots; AOPA at Goodwood

42

26 It'll never fly

Need a Mustang for a film? A Spitfire for a plinth? An Me-109 for your garden? Gateguards can provide – but now they have ambitions to build a real Mosquito, as Pat Malone reports

31 SkyDemon for iPad

Steve Copeland is highly impressed by SkyDemon's new navigation and flight planning app

34 It's what your PPL is for

A 42-hour trip by Robin from Bodmin to the Syrian border and back described by Pat Malone

42 Air cadets

Andrew Rennie explains the work of the Air Training Corps in fostering airmindedness in the young

44

48

44 Instructors' awayday

Former VC-10 tanker instructor Nick Wilcock steps back ten years as the Instructor Committee samples his old life

48 Aiglet Trainer

David Ogilvy flies a good aircraft that came along at a bad time

34

26