

Contents

AUGUST 2009

42

- 4 Chairman's Column
Working together. By George Done
- 5 AOPA Working for You
European Commission slaps down EASA; CAA backs off on Mode-S; CAA slashes one Part M bill; Dutch get difficult; security reports say leave GA alone; is ATSOAS working?
- 12 Mentoring moves
The first mentors induction course described by Mick Elborn; meanwhile Pat Malone and Timothy Nathan test-fly the concept
- 15 AOPA awards
The great and the good of general aviation get their just rewards. By Pat Malone
- 18 Aerodrome news
David Ogilvy updates members on AOPA's campaigns at threatened aerodromes

40

22

- 21 History men
The Historic Aircraft Association works for vintage aircraft safety. By Stephen Slater
- 22 BA Swallow
Marketed as the safest plane in the world, the BA Swallow very nearly was, says David Ogilvy
- 26 Apache Geronimo
An Indian you won't have encountered before, described by Warren Armstrong
- 30 Briefings
1,500-mile formation for charity; World Air Games; CAA safety awards; World aerobatics team
- 34 Passion for floats
Go to Como in the Italian Lakes for a unique waterborne flying experience, says Derrick Fawcett
- 36 MiG 29
Russian Cold War icon takes John Lewis to the edge of space at Mach 2
- 39 Book reviews
- 40 Weather to pay
Cheapskate Pat Malone tells why he's finally decided to cough up for the Met Office's subscription services

21

36

Peter R March

- 42 Art of aviation
A painting of your aircraft is better than a photograph, as Jim Brown illustrates
- 46 Letters
Saving the IMC; lifting licenses; closing flightplans; mind your language; black versus orange
- 48 Soaring with Eagles
General aviation as it should be at Eaglescott in North Devon. Pat Malone reports

34

26

Keith Wilson