

Contents

OCTOBER 2007

22

4 Chairman's message
The target is zero. By George Done

5 AOPA Working for You
JAR-FCL – why? Fuel tax threat recedes; LARS comes to London; Oban shenanigans; Euro VAT loophole to close; infringements – we don't like 'em; Southend death fulfils prophecy; plus Mode-S, Notams, Safety Evenings and more

16 How to use AIS
Do you know your way around the AIS website? Mike Cross will hold your hand

18 In To Africa
Intercontinental adventure in an AA5. By Dr Sahib Bleher

22 Aero AT-3
A flying club opts for a Very Light Aircraft – and it works out well, as Andy Raymond reports

18

28 Parnall Elf
Good try, but never a match for the Moth, says David Ogilvy

27 Letters to the editor
How not to build a Beagle; why we quit flying; German alternatives; radio ga-ga; praise for Southampton

36

32

32 Fly Navy!
New learn-as-you-fly scholarship looks attractive to students

34 Wings Around Britain
Another fund-raising triumph for the intrepid Polly Vacher. Liz Moscrop reports

36 Blowing in the wind
David Ogilvy reports on the ever-increasing threat posed to aerodromes by windfarms

38 The aerial Land Rover
The venerable Westland Scout, bashed about by the Army as if it had wheels. John Beattie recollects

34

28

38

