

Contents

OCTOBER 2009

31

4 Chairman's Column

Growing the membership.
By George Done

5 AOPA Working for You

EASA moves to put its house in order; GA fights illegal immigration; farewell, Sir Roy McNulty; saving the IMC rating; Met Office seeks GA's help; 'Part M lite' is light on change; new charges for security and spectrum pricing; TMZ at Stansted; NATS and the future of VORs.

21 Briefings

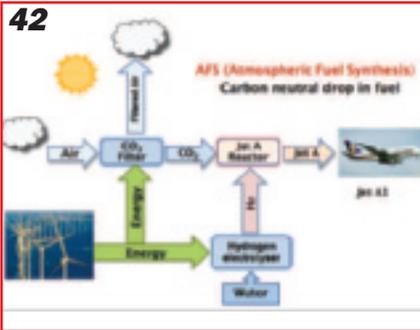

Bizjet business holds up; world's oldest flying club? Setting speed records; taking tea while inverted

24 Captain Concorde

Pat Malone spends a fascinating afternoon with Jock Lowe, the man who saved Concorde

31 Crosswind capers

So you can't work out the crosswind component? Join the club – but how would the alternative work, asks Pat Malone

42

33 Letters

Two from the CAA this time, on ATSOCAS and LSAs; one about the CAA

34 Murphy's Law

Five World War One replicas grace the funeral of Henry Allingham – just. Pat Malone tells the full story

38 North American Harvard

One of the best and most successful advanced trainers evaluated by David Ogilvy

42 Fuel of the future

Making aviation fuels from thin air sounds a tall order, but Prof Tony Marmont explains how the process would work

45 Mooney from America

Home from the States at 200 knots – David Plange makes his first transatlantic crossing in a light single

45

34

24

38