

Contents

DECEMBER 2012

40

4 Chairman's column

By George Done

5 AOPA working for you

Light at the end of the EASA tunnel? Unmaking Part M; European Regional Meeting gets good news and bad; new AOPA Board members

22 EASA FCL

Partnership group tries to bring some sense of proportion to EASA's Flight Crew Licensing regulations, as Nick Wilcock reports

24 Microlight 'airportheid'

Microlights are shut out of major airfields partly because of poor RT. Deepak Mahajan has some advice

26 Spitfire

The ultimate high – flying a Spitfire at the Boulton Flight Academy at Goodwood. Pat Malone reports

32 Engine failure

Lessons to be learned from the forced landing of a Topsy Trainer. By Steve Slater

32

24

36 Briefings

Cambridge rolls out the red carpet; Beech fly-in; why GA pays for business; VC-10 reaching the end of the airway

40 AOPA bonus day

Despite the weather, almost 100 members come to Duxford for AOPA's Open Day. Pat Malone reports

46 Book reviews

48 Miles M38 Messenger

The last in a long line, the Messenger M38 could hold its head up with some of today's aircraft, as David Ogilvy reports

36

via Philip Jarrett

48

26

Richard Paver

