

Contents

OCTOBER 2012

16

4 Chairman's Column

By George Done

5 AOPA Working for You

Transponder AD rescinded – is EASA listening at last? Medicals for the LAPL; Strasser steps back, Slater steps forward; meet our new Brussels lobbyist; illegal public transport

14 Maintenance

AOPA drafts a code of practice
By George Done

16 Voice of Concorde

Concorde Captain John Hutchinson tells of a career of highlights and lowlights. By Paul Smiddy

20 To fly or not to fly?

Following the fatal crash of the DH-53 David Ogilvy, injured in the same aircraft, debates whether such planes should be flown

32

20

Peter R March

22 Maule MX-7

If you need to fly to darkest Africa, you need one of these, you do. Sam Rutherford reports on the consummate bushplane

28 Briefings:

Britain wins gold and silver in the air; Bentley Priory moves; sims on the cheap; Underhand dealing on the R66? Bicester on the block; Bill Ryall RIP

22

Austin Brown

32 Down the Steppes

With Italy a tax no-go area Angus Clark diverts to Ukraine for an AOPA fly-in and doesn't regret it

39 Letters to the editor

40 DH Fox Moth

A commercial proposition from more enlightened times flown by David Ogilvy

28

40

Peter R March

