

Contents

APRIL 2011

36

4 Chairman's Column

Common sense regulation.
By George Done

5 AOPA Working for You

Olympic restrictions over the top; chink of light on N-reg; EASA: we love the IMC rating; heightened prosecution risk; moves to resolve seat belt mess; EASA fees 'work against safety'; Sugar says 'no' to GA ambassador role

23 Throwing it about

Try aerobatics for their own sake, or to make you a better pilot, says Nick Bloom

45

28

28 Welcome to the R66

Robinson's long-awaited turbine makes its debut in the UK.
Pat Malone reports

30 Tecnam Twin

Twin-engined safety on single-engined money appreciated by Geoffrey Boot

36 Once upon a time

In the days before GPS, flying a light aircraft across the Atlantic could be a hit-and-miss adventure.
Brian Dixon did it

42 Briefings

Put Duxford in your diary; new concerns over aircraft sales fraud; Cambridge welcomes GA

45 RIP Bill Ison

A tribute to an indefatigable supporter of the Tiger Moth and a great aviator

46 Letters

I flew the Cranfield A1 too; why EASA is bad for business

23

Mick Osbaldeston

48 Druine Turbulent

A microlight before the term was invented, the Turb did a lot with 30 hp. By David Ogilvy

51 Where to Fly Guide

AOPA's annual listing of the best schools and clubs in the country

48

Via Philip Jarrett

30

Flyer