

22

4 Chairman's Column

Fixing maintenance.
By George Done

5 AOPA Working for You

EASA starts trying to make Part M work; AOPA summit sets transatlantic goals; IAOPA Europe meets in Warsaw; AOPA sets out concerns on EASA-Ops

10 EASA and instrument flying

Nick Wilcock adds flesh to the bones of EASA's contentious NPA on instrument flying.

14 Boiler room

The AOPA Executive Committee talks through Single European Sky, instrument flying and more

20 SES and you

AOPA has invested six years of work and significant resources in the Single European Sky, as Ben Stanley explains

22 Aerobatics

Simon Rolfe tells how he became the first pilot to get the AOPA Intermediate Aerobatics Certificate

27 Lee in the ascendant

Once doomed to close, now designated an Enterprise Zone, Lee on Solent enjoys the good time.
By Pat Malone

10

28 50 golden years

The Pooley's Flight Guide is 50 years old; Pat Malone describes its evolution

32 Rotary kit

Can't afford a helicopter? Why not build your own. By Pat Malone

38 Letters to the editor

Risk-based regulation; leaning on props; Channel Islands PPR

40 Rudderless

The ERCO Ercoupe dispensed with rudder pedals, but the idea never caught on. David Ogilvy assesses the type

28

32

14

40

Via Philip Jarrett