

Contents

FEBRUARY 2006

28

4 Chairman's message
Why the CAA has launched its reviews. By George Done

5 Cabinet Office and the CAA
AOPA's claims over CAA charges are vindicated, as Pat Malone reports

6 Power play
European regulators meet in Edinburgh – but what's the hidden agenda? By Martin Robinson

8 The Buck stops here
General aviation becomes a squeaky wheel. Pat Malone interviews aviation minister Karen Buck

26

18

21

12 Can the pilot fly?
The Multi Crew Pilot Licence can leave the ATPL even lighter on traditional flying skills. Pat Malone reports

14 Too dangerous to learn?
Derek Jones asks whether we're forgetting too many basics in modern helicopter instruction.

16 High Performance Rating
Barrie Prescott, the first man to get an HPA rating, describes his experiences

18 Too hot to handle
...literally. Geoff Boot flies in Australia's Northern Territory, where even the planes get sunburn

21 Walk before you fly
A 15-year-old girl plans her career

Cover story
22 Six of the Best
Les Brodie gets his hands on the New Piper Saratoga and is impressed

26 A higher calling
Former BAe test pilot Derek Reeh chucks it all in to fly for the Mission Air Fellowship in Africa

22

16

28 Corporate Member Profile:
Waveney Flying Group
Flying as it ought to be. By Pat Malone

31 Briefings
Cirrus-BN link confirmed; BWPA does good deeds; GAPAN scholarships; memories of Eastchurch

33 Letters to the editor

36 Percival Proctor
Military workhorse with sporty origins has suffered the fate of wooden aircraft everywhere. David Ogilvy reports

40 Book reviews

42 Obituary
Ray Hanna gets new wings. An appreciation by Tudor Owen

14

36