

Contents

JUNE 2009

21 Chairman's Column

AOPA and the political process.
By George Done

5 AOPA Working For You

Excellent news from the European Parliament; Mode-S shows its true colours; relief on fixed ELTs; is ATSOCAS working? Humberside joins Strasser Scheme; Mentoring Scheme moves ahead; IAOPA-Europe meets; CAA costs rocket.

21 Briefings

GAPAN ATPL scholarship, Oxford starts clamping, Jock Maitland honoured.

22 Winkle Brown

The world's greatest test pilot talks about his spectacular career and his hopes for the future. By Pat Malone

28 AFPEX is here

Tony Purton takes you step by step through the new AFPX flight planning system

30 Bolkow Monsun

Tony Watson sings the praises of an affordable two-seater with aerobatic capability and good grass field performance

33 Letters

In praise of Newcastle; anybody here speak English? AOCs and demo flights

34 Affordable GPS

Inexpensive car GPS technology can easily be transferred to the cockpit, as Richard Warriner demonstrates

36 Gloster Meteor

In the second part of his appraisal of the RAF's first jet, David Ogilvy recalls six-gallon-a-minute fuel considerations

40 Alan Bristow RIP

An appreciation of one of the great helicopter pioneers, by Pat Malone

42 EBACE 2009

The business aviation glass is half full, says Mike Jerram in Geneva

