

Contents

OCTOBER 2005

- 4 Chairman's message
George Done
- 5 AOPA Working for You
Independent report savages CAA charges case; Parliament joins the fray; flawed DfT reasoning on foreign registry; avoiding bird strikes; MoD invents new charge; insurance for flying instructors
- 12 Up, up and away
Fuel prices soar ever upwards with no sign of relief. Pat Malone reports
- 14 Airshow picture special
As the season draws to a close we showcase a few pictures by Damien Burke of this year's charity shows
- 16 Young Pilots' Tour of France
AOPA's entrant Edd Shields reports on his experiences as the only Briton in the field

- 40
- 18 Dangerous knowledge
AOPA seeks a review of the requirement to teach instrument flying to PPL(H) students; CAA proposals on visibility minima for helicopters opposed; dirty pool at the World Helicopter Championships
- Cover story
- 22 Flying the Plastic Duck
With the Diamond DA42 Twin Star now in service, Ian Sturgess gives his appraisal
- 26 How to buy an aircraft
Some tips on what to look for and what to avoid, from an expert. By Derrick Ings
- 29 What's going on at Sywell?
Pat Malone talks to owner Michael Bletsoe Brown

- 16
- 30 Two-time losers
Flying instructors are caught between two employment stools as the government has it both ways. By David Clutterbuck
- 33 Briefings
Free flying for women; Canberra bows out; winter dates for CAA safety evenings
- 35 Letters to the editor
That Newcastle diversion; CAA charges; flying the Percival Prentice; hard questions for the CAA chairman
- 36 Corporate member profile
A relatively remote location hasn't stopped Lovat Fraser turning Tayside Aviation into the envy of the industry, as Pat Malone reports
- 39 Bader Day
Disabled youngsters take to the skies from White Waltham, as pilot Sarah Brodie reports
- 40 The way we were
Flight instruction in the fifties remembered by David Ogilvy

