

Contents

OCTOBER 2008

16

4 Chairman's message

GA's strong international voice, by George Done

5 AOPA Working for You

New stealth tax on radio and nav aids; faction-fighting on terror; Lee-on-Solent progress; PR polish for AOPA; new recruits to the Strasser Scheme

8 Making AIS better

The AIS website is vastly improved but work continues to make it more user-friendly, as Mike Cross reports

16 Meet Andy Green

The world's only supersonic motorist tells Pat Malone why he'd rather be flying

22 Robin DR400

Is this the perfect aircraft for business travel in the UK? Pat Malone reports

26 More bang for the buck

Martin Leusby gets a new engine for his C172 and is well pleased

28

42

28 Man at the top

Where does GA fit into the skies of tomorrow? Pat Malone sits down with Eurocontrol Director General David McMillan

33 Briefings

ATA pilots honoured; CAA Safety Evening dates; the Dunkirk air show; Judge Tudor Owen vindicated

36 Spartan Arrow

It looked like a Moth but didn't have the same impressive handling qualities, says David Ogilvy

40 World Helicopter Championships

Team GB plays a blinder to achieve a podium finish in a contest that needs a makeover. Pat Malone reports

42 Why I fly

...by way of Beachy Head. By Pat Malone

22

36

40

26